Embracing a Blessed Life

Receiving the blessings of God is not realized by a casual Christian but is only brought to life in one who has _____ the call of Christ in their lives.

Our Lord calls us to a life of significance, a blessed life, a life defined not by the money that we make, not by the movements we create, the legacies we leave behind in family, but rather by the _____.

This is a life called unto _____.

A mark defined by separation, misunderstood by those around us but fulfilled not by the things of this world, not by our purpose, but by the _____.

Poor in Spirit

It is through not the _____ of embracing poverty as a believer, but through the _____ that we can fully embrace his purpose, his blessings in this life.

It is only through embracing a change in spiritual perspective. It is only through seeing the _____ of our lives, and the destruction that we bring that we can fully embrace a _____.

A Mournful Spirit

A mournful spirit is not defined by the _____, personal or possession.

A mournful spirit is experienced in fully seeing our _____ and the _____ of our Savior.

A Spirit of Meekness

Meekness as a believers requires that we submit to those who have authority over us, it requires that we consider _____ less than those around us, and it requires that we embrace _____ to our Lord and Savior.
